2010 Nebraska State Fair

Indoor and Outdoor Space / Booth Rental Information for

New Applicants

You want to be a part of this!! The 2010 Nebraska State Fair celebrates 141 years of Nebraska tradition. We are excited to put on Nebraska's largest annual celebration at our new fairgrounds location at Fonner Park in Grand Island, NE. The Nebraska State Fair will continue to educate and entertain, recognize individual achievements; celebrate excellence in agriculture, industry, commerce, education, arts, sciences, and technology; and reinforce a sense of community and shared culture for the citizens of Nebraska. We are excited to learn of your interest and look forward to work with all of our partners (new and long standing) for the 141st Nebraska State Fair!

Read all Rules & Regulations carefully

Pictures of concession trailers are required (be sure to read last paragraph below), pictures of commercial, educational, and non-profit booths, are also required (photos may be returned if requested).

Fill in this Application Form as completely as possible - print clearly, or type.

List all items for sale - include brand and/or manufacturer's name. Any item that is not included on your application, will not be included on your final contract, and will not be allowed to be on display or for sale at the Fair.

Liability Insurance is required, and may be purchased through a group policy. Insurance application forms are available online at www.statefair.org.

Exhibitor Tickets All paid spaces will include one season ticket. Ticket Order Forms will be included with your contract for any additional tickets that you need to purchase for your staff.

Mail form and payment (money order, or completed Visa/MasterCard form, checks will be accepted for payment before August 1 only) to address below. Make checks and money orders payable to: Nebraska State Fair.

All application forms will be filed, by product/service/merchandise available, appearance of display or stand, then by date application was received. If you would like to inquire about the status of your application – please e-mail: jparr@statefair.org. Applications for products or services not already being shown at the Fair, may be located sooner than ones with a duplicate product. The Nebraska State Fair reserves the right to consider the total number and requested location of merchandise offered for sale, including food and/or beverages, as relates to space contracts.

Please allow at least 30 days from date mailed, for an acceptance call or letter regarding a possible space at the Nebraska State Fair. Provide a mailing address and phone number where you can be reached through the summer.

The number of food locations has reached a practical limit in all areas. It is very unlikely that we will add additional concessions to our Fair this year; however, we do continually look for products and food items not currently offered, if space becomes available. Therefore, please do submit an application, with photos of your concession trailer or grounds stand during an open for business time.
