

2019 Shipping Options

Competitive Exhibits can be shipped to and from the fair either (1) by one of two delivery services: Federal Express (FedEx) or United Parcel Service (UPS) or (2) by mail: United States Postal Service (USPS).

You do not have to use the same delivery and return methods but be sure to note what your plans are when you enter your exhibits. If your return plans change, let the superintendent know.

Regardless of the shipping option you choose, the exhibits must be entered by the department entry deadline and received by the department receiving deadline.

You are responsible for paying any return shipment costs whether it is by USPS or a delivery service.
